The Welcome Fire meeting is Monday August 24 at 6 PM at the Fire hall.

The levy needs to be certified at a total amount of $250,000

A copy of a tile permit modified for township use was received from Kevin Peyman. Each board member should review it before next month's meeting.

The truck committee for United Fire Association recommended the townships forgive the City of Fairmont the $125,000 they owe and begin fresh from here. At a special meeting of the townships, by a 17-3 vote, it was decided to do nothing, but to keep the money for the next truck the townships must buy. There was never a committee meeting on the truck currently being spec'd.

142nd Ave needs additional material. One load was applied at the County 26 corner, with an additional load applied to the saddle of the hill.

The insurance company has completed their evaluation of our property and equipment and presented us with some alternative for coverage.

A resolution was passed to increase the property coverage to Replacement Cost.

A resolution was passed to increase the deductible to $1000.
